STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

1. Whether the "taint" and appearance of impropriety and conflict alone arising from the prior and ongoing representation by the Trustee and his law firm of Debtor Eastern Livestock's major creditor financial institution, Fifth Third Bank, and its primary loan participant, Wells Fargo, required removal.

2. Whether the Court erred in holding that the Trustee was not required to disclose, pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2007.1(c) and 11 U.S.C. §§ 101(14) and 1104, his and his law firm's known connections to Wells Fargo and all of its affiliated Wells

Fargo companies, a $10 million loan participant in the $32.5 million asserted secured claim against the Debtor.

3. Whether the Court erred in holding that it was “unnecessary” for the Court to determine whether the Trustee, after entering in to a limited conflict waiver agreement with Wells Fargo, did not have to disclose the relationship, the connections, or the existence of the limited conflict waiver agreement.

4. Whether the Court erred in finding that Wells Fargo was a “former client” of the Trustee and his law firm, and whether the Court erred in attaching any relevance to this fact, including but not limited to its holding that it was “unnecessary” for the Court to decide whether the Trustee was not required to disclose his or his firm’s connections with Wells Fargo under the Trustee’s continuing duties of disclosure.

5. Whether the Court erred in holding that a loan participant in the largest secured claim in a Chapter 11 case is not a “creditor” or “party in interest” for purposes of the disclosure requirements and the disinterestedness requirements under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2007.1(c), and 11 U.S.C. §§ 101(14) and 1104.

6. Whether the Court erred in finding that the Trustee was and continued to be a “disinterested person” as defined in the Seventh Circuit for the purposes of 11 U.S.C. § 101(14), as statutorily mandated by 11 U.S.C. § 1104.

7. Whether the Court erred in finding that the Trustee and his law firm were free to assert any Estate claims, defenses, and causes of action, and to otherwise act adversely to Wells Fargo without regard to the limitations and prohibitions contained in the limited conflict waiver agreement entered into between the Trustee and Wells Fargo and the obligations imposed by the Indiana ethics rules.

8. Whether the Court erred in finding that the Trustee entered into a written conflict waiver agreement with Fifth Third Bank which contained no limitations when no evidence that such conflict waiver ever existed or was ever placed in the Court record or otherwise disclosed or produced, and whether the Court erred in finding that the Trustee had “fully disclosed” all of his and his firm’s connections with Fifth Third Bank and that the Trustee was free to be adverse to Fifth Third Bank and to commence any action against Fifth Third Bank.

9. Whether the Court erred in finding that removal of the Trustee was neither warranted nor mandated because of the risks of possible delay, possible added costs, possible impairment of estate causes of action, and possible lessened creditor recoveries, when no evidence was presented on any of such possibilities.

10. Whether the Court erred in failing to consider as relevant to the removal of the Trustee, the evidence involving the Estate’s general bankruptcy counsel’s very similar non-disclosures and lack of disinterestedness regarding Wells Fargo, and the collective decision of the Trustee and his Counsel that neither would make disclosures of any sort regarding their respective limited conflict waiver agreements with Wells Fargo.

11. Whether the Court erred in finding that no significant harm would result from the continuance of the Trustee in the Chapter 11 case.

12. Whether the Court erred in applying the incorrect standard of law to the motions to remove the Trustee.

13. Whether the Court erred when it entered the Order Denying Motions to Remove.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of September 2012,
